Fruit Falling!

“Fruit Falling” thrilling experience like no other!

Menu for Fine-Diving

Fruit falling has many packages that you can select from, making your own unique falling experience! Lets look at some of these elements. Skydiving really cant get much better, but have you ever been up there, enjoying the views but had the nagging thought of, “man, I could really use a snack...” Well, we don’t want anything to keep you from enjoying your experience. This is why we offer eating options while diving. Pick any fruit of your choice! We provide classic fruits such as: apples, bananas, oranges. Craving something a little more exotic? Try a mango, starfruit, passionfruit! How about a fruit smoothie to sip on while you enjoy your fall? Try everything with our fruit basket sampler! Our menu is provided and we’ll make sure the fruit from a small snack to a falling feast is absolutely satisfactory.

Fruit-‘Chutes

Another package that we offer is falling with your fruit. Literally skydiving, among your selection of falling fruits. You can choose one fruit from the menu or a falling special package.

Fruit-‘chutes process goes as follows. You jump out of the plane and get settled in your dive. Once you’re ready, one of your divine assistants will release the fruit. Watch as some fruits fall at different speeds, fill your beautiful views with some of your favorite fruits falling to their demise. You will have the opportunity to release the fruits parachutes, slowing their fall when you do, until, finally, the fruit will be dropped from their parachutes and let free. You then get to spend your last moments of falling filled with the satisfaction that comes from watching fruit crash on the ground below at great speeds, all from your perfect viewpoint in the sky. The beauty and awesome explosions of fruit chunks and juices would impress any diver, fruit-loveing or not.

Fruit-friends

Fruit Friends is the added option of creating a fruit friend, face and all, to dive with you. Who doesn't want a companion in this great journey? look back at your friend to share in the joy of your fall. You can take your fruit friend home with you as someone to share those memories with. Dropping Fruit Friends from their 'chutes for ultimate death is also optional.

Sweet Samurai Skydives

If falling out of the sky, swirling towards the ground at great speeds isn't a big enough thrill, you've come to the right place. Not everyone has the courage to skydive, but only the very elite have enough inner strength to take on our "Sweet Samurai Skydive". In this new and exciting thrill of epic proportions, you will get to fulfill your dreams of becoming a literal fruit ninja, while falling from the sky. As part of our most intricate falling experience, you will dive along with 5 expert divers. These professional skydivers, dressed in their samurai best, will fill the position of your fruit-foes, who throw fruit at you with all their might. Your task? Protect yourself and your diving instructor (consider him/her your damsel in distress) from these delicious attacks. Slice, Dice, destroy, mince if you want, with your provided samurai sword. After the fruit-foes retreat, defeated, you will decent victories, upon the remains of these fruit attacks.

About

How did "Fruit Falling" come to be?

One day a young entrepreneur sat with a fellow student, stumped by lack of new ideas, and lack of working internet connection. This young person explained to a friend that they needed a new, hip idea, any idea, to give to the people. It could be anything from skydiving to bananas.

"skydiving with bananas?"

And thus "fruit falling" was born.

About Our company

Fruit Falling, one of the many leading organizations from Productzziejo prides itself on providing a absolutely unique experience that can be found no where else. We can proudly claim that no other company in this civilized world provides the thrill of skydiving with fruit, not even to mention our other, more unique options.

Safety

All divers are required to sign waivers upon making a reservation and before the dive, along with going through a safety training on how to enjoy your dive without any risk. Along with this, every diver is required to fall with a trained, certified professional skydiver that works with our company. Only those who are not first time fruit fallers (must have dived with “Fruit Falling” before) and have plan ahead, showing copy of their licensed certification for skydiving, can dive without an instructor strapped to them.
